LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR

Spiritual Reflection

"Love of God is the root, love of our neighbor the fruit of the Tree of Life. Neither can exist without the other, but the one is cause and the other effect."

ARCHBISHOP WILLIAM TEMPLE

This week we presented our final “Sacred Songs” on Wednesday which featured some of your favorites. Sacred Songs, Sacred Stories, and Sacred Prayers continue to be available on the church website for your use in meditation, reflection, and inspiration.

DISCIPLESHIP

In New Covenant’s core values, we have committed to Spiritual Growth as a priority. We have been created to worship and to follow God, growing in our faith. New Covenant offers many ways to do that – one being in our Connect Small Groups. We realize New Covenant is a large church, and Connect Small Groups are the best way to find your special place here by connecting with others with whom you can study, serve, and fellowship. Another important means of Spiritual Growth is through our Sunday classes. Many classes are resuming in June.

We hope you will visit the website to see the various classes offered and join in one of these groups. If you want more information about Connect Small Groups, Sunday classes, or other opportunities, please click the link to contact Ashley Hill, Discipleship Coordinator.

B&B TRUCK

The Bargains & Blessings Truck will be in the West Parking Lot to accept donations before and after worship services on Saturday, June 5 and Sunday, June 6.

STEWARDSHIP

Thanks on Memorial Day

As we head into Memorial Day Weekend, let's take time to give thanks to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, for protecting this country and for providing us the freedom we have.

Let's give thanks to the men and women who have served in the military for assuring that we continue to have the freedom our forefathers conceived and envisioned.

And may we all take time to thank all of the members of God's army for continuing to spread the word of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Though at times we seem divided, we are so extremely fortunate to be Americans and enjoy our Lord's bounty.

Volunteering to the ministries of your church is a way to more fully understand how Blessed we are.

-Charles Stuart, Chair, Finance Committee
